DONATION'S CORNER

"S. O. S." We need your help! The Stock Pile has joined the "Social Network" and we are now on Facebook®.

But woe is us; we don't have enough friends. First of all we need you to "Like" us. Then we need you to ask all your friends to "Like" us. Facebook® is a method of communicating to many current and new individuals throughout the local area.

We are the local Building Materials Reuse Warehouse. We have an extremely limited budget for advertising. We need both an increase of donated items and new members to shop with us. We will use Facebook® to feature items in addition to our website and newsletters.

Just search "The Stock Pile" on your home page. Several hits will pop up. Our logo will direct you to the correct page. (Watch for unadvertised specials, save big $$$'s.)
