MY FAREWELL TO ALL

To Whom It May Concern,...is such an impersonal phrase. Yet, when I think of ALL the people who have come into my life for the past 12 and a half years at The Stock Pile, I don't have enough room to personally thank EACH of YOU. Most important is Jerry Bixler for bringing me on board to manage this great program from it's infancy, and Bob Nau and Brenda Sarsany for having faith and partnering with me through all the growing pains. Know that in my heart, if we have ever shared a smile, I will keep you there. Thanks for the memories, and may God bless. With kindest regards,
Becky Lewis

Hello, Members, Donors & Fans of The Stock Pile!

My name is Laura McVay and I have recently joined The Stock Pile as the new Program Manager. I would like to thank everyone at The Stock Pile for their kind help during this transition period and I am looking forward to working with all of you in the continuance of our non-profit program!

Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP) Homes For Sale

Through the NSP, several homes are for sale throughout Stark County that target homebuyers at 80–120% of median income. These homes have been rehabbed, and down payment assistance is available. For details & pictures, go to www.rpc.co.stark.oh.us.

Programmable Thermostat

Rebates

Through the Energy Efficiency Grant, Stark County will provide a $25 rebate

to County residents (outside the City of Canton) when purchasing and installing a programmable thermostat

By programming correctly, you can save up to $180 on your heating and cooling bill
